

EAST TO WEST

South Asia Cultural Association Presents

ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2005

VENUE: Spokane Falls Community College
Music Building Auditorium (Bldg. 15)

A Free Workshop by the artists to explain the intricacies of the instruments and the Indian Music between 11:30 am & 12:20 pm

An evening concert at 7:00 pm - SURSANGAM

(A ticketed event)

Confluence of Ragas (JUGALBANDHI) on Wind -String Instruments from India
South Indian Bamboo Flute and North Indian Santur

Internationally acclaimed 'Surmani' V. K. Raman on Flute
Santur Virtuoso Nand Kishore Muley (German Grammy Winner) on Santur

PERCUSSIONISTS:

B. Ravishankar - Mridangam (Double headed drum, Disciple of Mridangam Maestro Karaikudi.R.Mani)

Aditya Kalyanpur - Tabla (Disciple of Tabla Maestro Ustad Zakir Hussain)

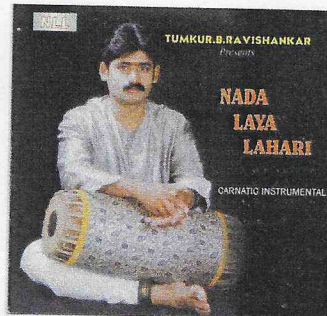

Please visit www.fluteraman.com for additional information.

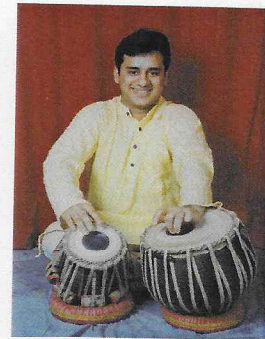

V.K Raman

Nand Kishore Muley

B.Ravi Shankar

Aditya Kalyanpur

TICKETS: General: $15 per person. ~~SFCC~~ General (18 & under) Students (with current student ID): $ 5.

For details contact Sreedharani Nandagopal, President, SACA - 509 467 5558.

CCS Fac & Staff: $ 10. CCS Students with current stu ID: Free

SACA acknowledges the generous donations from the following without which this program could not have been arranged:

SFCC Music Department; Howard Johnson Inn, Spokane; Minuteman Press,
Spokane; Red Top Motel, Spokane Valley; Steven Schneider, Spokane;
Interfaith Council, Spokane; Spokane City Credit union, Spokane.

CCS Diversity Committee